

2013 Digger Auction

April 20, 2013

M.C.: Joe McClafferty

AUCTIONEER: Dave Marsh

SILENT AUCTION BEGINS: 6:00 pm

SILENT AUCTION CLOSES: Throughout the evening

LIVE AUCTION BEGINS: 7:30 pm

RULES AND DETAILS

1. At registration, you will receive a bid number. Please use your bid number for live, silent, and spotlight bidding.
2. Please note specifications and limitations on all auction items carefully. All sales are final. There will be no exchanges on items except where specified.
3. Arrangements must be made for payment and pick-up before the close of the evening.
4. Cash, checks, Visa, Master Card, American Express, and Discover will be accepted.
5. Buyers are responsible for making arrangements to redeem any certificates.
6. If an item sells for more than the value, the difference is tax deductible as a donation.

EXPRESS CHECKOUT

Guests are encouraged to sign-up for express checkout at registration. Doing so will enable you to avoid lines during checkout. At check-in, your credit card will be swiped and items you bid on will be charged to your card. At check out, we will fill out the appropriate amount to charge your card. At the end of the evening, just pick-up your itemized receipt, collect your item(s) from the runner, and be on your way home. Visa, Master Card, American Express, and Discover cards accepted. If you sign-up for express check out, and do not bid on anything your credit card slip will be destroyed.

EASY - QUICK - SECURE

Live Auction

1. The best way to bid during the live auction is to raise your bid number or gesture to the auctioneer or spotter.
2. Acceptance of the high bid becomes a binding obligation. The auctioneer will announce the winning bidder by number.
3. An auction official will immediately confirm the winning bidder with the signing of an auction receipt by the buyer.

Silent Auction

1. Items are displayed with bid cards. Persons desiring to bid may do so by writing their number on the line next to the printed bid amounts or on the blank sheets for the secret silent bids.
2. The silent auction will close as posted.
3. Bidding raises must be made as indicated on the bid sheets.
4. If two (2) or more individuals are bidding on an item as the table closes, the silent auction judge will give the participants the opportunity to write down a secret bid above the final bid listed. The individual that submits the highest bid will be awarded the item. If ties remain following the secret bid procedure, then cards will be drawn and the highest card will win the item at the highest submitted bid.
5. All items have a one year expiration.
